

Fundraising and Events

Best practice for organising fundraising events

Organising events as a means of fundraising can be a great way to involve an array of different people and the community as a whole.

These Codes provide guidance for a range of events from Charity Challenge Events abroad to a dinner dance in a town hall.

Fundraising in schools can be a particularly daunting but rewarding area, due to the strict regulations when working with children. The Code on Fundraising in Schools provides guidance on this specific area.
