

The Introduction of Self-Regulation and The Fundraising Promise

Read the promise and find out what it means

The Fundraising Standards Board Fundraising Promise is a promise made by members of the FRSB scheme to the public, committing to the highest standards of practice, and ensuring that all their activities are open, fair, honest and legal.

Charities displaying the FRSB tick have agreed to adhere to the Fundraising Promise when raising funds.

Read The Fundraising Promise.

For further information visit the Fundraising Standards Board web site, or telephone 0845 402 5442.

To understand what membership of the Fundraising Standards Board will mean for Institute of Fundraising Organisational members, visit the Institute's Self-Regulation & Organisational Membership pages.

Related Links:

- The Fundraising Promise
- Fundraising Standards Board
- Self-Regulation of Fundraising
- Self-Regulation and Organisational Membership
- Contact the Policy Team

©2008 Institute of Fundraising

The Institute is a charity registered in England and Wales (No 1079573) and Scotland (No SC038971)